Newspaper Opinions Upon the Action of the Jury.

"THE NATION'S SHAME."

From the Philadelphia Times (Ind ) The acquittal of the star-route thieves, under the very shadows of the fountain of our national laws, stamps the republic with an indellible impress of shame. Had such a verdict been rendered in one of the primitive tribunals of justice on the outskirts of civilization, where the glaring thefts of the defendants were committed, it would not have startled the country and the world: but a verdict of acquittal in the capital of a great free government whose honor and safety are in the majesty of law, is the most profound humiliation ever inflicted upon the nation by a court of justice. Even with all the technicalities of the law exhausted to shield the star-route defendants, there was no plausible excuse for a verdict of acquittal.

"A DISGRACEFUL VERDICT."

From the New York World (Dem.) The false verdiot rendered by the inry in the star-route prosecution is more than a failure of justice. It is a public calamity. The fact that the government has been robbed of more than $2,000,000 in the star-route contracts by fraud, forgery and perjury is as clear and as well know as the fact that Dukes was shot and killed in the streets of Uniontown last Wednesday evening. It is as well known that Dorsey, Brady and their associates were guilty as that James Nutt was the slaver of his father's murderer. TURN THE PARTY OUT OF OFFICE.

From the Brooklyn Eagle (Dem.) What the American people believed when the trial began they have been taught by the course of events to believe more firmly than ever. Corruption will not cease, fraud will not involve punishment while the party that practices the corruption and commits the fraud is intrusted with the responsibility of enforcing the mandates of justice. It is contrary to buman nawas agreed upon, and a considerable ture, contrary to all experience to expect it. The only remedy is to turn that party out and to substitute an administration whose interest it will be, not to conceal wrong and shield the over $13,000 towards the capital wrong-doer, but to expose the one and punish the other. ALWAYS SAFE WITH A WASHINGTON JURY.

From the Philadelphia Press (Rep.) The present jury has been trying to follow this trial since December 4 One of them, Mr. Sheriff, undoubtedly describes the cases correctly when he says that the minds of the jurymen were unable to reach a firm and fixed convictiou. They were a thoroughly muddled jury, and the shortest and safest way Chronicle gives the following sketch of out of the difficulty was to acquit; hence the verdict of yesterday.

A CHANGE OF VENUE DEMANDED.

From the Washington Republican (Rep.) However the verdict of the jury may be

AN ECONOMICAL PLAN SUGGESTED.

If the Government has any more cases arms-bearing white men-that is, be- against anybody else for grand larceny, tween the ages of 18 and 45 years- we would advise it either to comprosubject to militia duty, as appears by mise at one cent on the dollar or disthe late census, but 4,068 are enrolled miss them entirely from the criminal or connected with any military organi- docket. ENCOURAGEMENT TO THIEVES.

From the New York Times (Rep.) The verdict of the star-route jury is one that will give comfort and encouragement to all who think it is no sin to steal from the treasury of the United nation it is a result unexpected and undesired, a grievous dissapointment and a fresh revelation of the power of wealthy and unscrupulous graduates of confronted in the courts of Washington by the proofs of their villainy.

I certainly did not intend it for a note to Mr. Cash, and was much surprised and deeply mortified that papers, including your own, should have dignified this affair into a "correspondence." This is the only concern which this matter has given me, and I ask, as an act of justice that you and the others who may possibly have been misled by your heading of "correspondence," give this, my version. An accident from a crush, occurred at a children's entertainment at Sunderland, England, last Saturday evening June 16, in which 178 children were killed. From the details thus far received, it appears that an entertainment had been given in Victoria Hall by a conjurer, which was attended almost altogether by children, to the number of several thousand. The accident occurred at the close of the performance. The body of the hall had boen entirely cleared of its occupants, when some 1,-200 of the little ones came rushing down the stairs from the gallery. At the top of the first flight of stairs there was a door which opened only twenty inches, and thus but one child could pass through at a time. At this point while a mass of children were pushing forward one of them fell and was unable to rise, owing to the others crowding on. The result was that a great number were pushed down, trampled on and suffocated. The scene was terrible, and no effort could stop the rush of the affrighted children. They came on pell mell, though strangely quiet, without much shouting. The bodies, which were badly mangled from trampling, laid seven or eight deep. Many of the victims and others who were not killed had their clothing torn from their bodies. The ages of 178 children known to have been killed range from four to fourteen years. The excitement in the town when the news of the disaster spread was terrific. Great crowds of people rushed to the scene, until at least 20,000 persons surrounded the hall. The feeling was so intense that the authorities ordered out the Sixty-The escape of Brady and Dorsey is eighth Infantry to preserve order. The Editor Times :- Seeing an article ir your paper last week from Arnold Parker, ! was impressed with the earnestness with which he appeals to you to continue to enlighten the world in regard to the means by which he was so miraculously cured of rheumatism and hip-joint lameness by using Kendall's Spavin Cure. The article to which he alludes by Dr. Bates, impressed me so favorably with the real merits of this remedy that I tried it also for several blemishes on my horses and found it the most perfect cure I ever tried for swavins and other blemishes, as it completely removes the enlargement in every instance by continuing its use for several days after the lameness has subsided. The perfect success I have always had with Kendall's Spavin Cure led me to use it on my own person, and for all the family with the very best results as a family liniment. While several of the cures made by it have been almost miraculous, none have been more satisfactory than several cures which I made with it of foot root and also sore teats as well as warts on teats of cows. I consider it a sure cure for sore teats or foot rot in either cows or sheep.
